BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Warren Debenham was born January 20, 1933 in San Francisco. He attended college at Stanford University and seminary at General Theological Seminary in New York City, and at The Church Divinity School of the Pacific in Berkeley, CA.

Debenham, one of the foremost comedy collectors in the United States, is a San Francisco Bay area minister. He has been collecting comedy albums for more than 60 years, and his collection includes more than 40,000 LPs, 45s, 78s and CDs. In addition, he has collected novelty items, newspaper clippings, fanzines, games, toys, and other ephemera. He is considered an authority on comedy recordings, and is often asked to contribute to catalogs and to the indexing of other collections in this field, such as the Dr. Demento online playlists and the Stan Freberg discography. In 2000, he worked with Marshall Berle on releasing albums (including Bill Dana's "Greatest Bits of Jose Jimenez") through Laugh.com.

Debenham served at St. Thomas Episcopal Church in Sunnyvale, CA from 1960-1974. The church's fourth vicar, he led St. Thomas's move from mission to parish status, thereby becoming its first rector in 1965. He was rector of St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Albany, CA, and did a neighborhood ministry in West Oakland, CA. He is now retired and assists part time at St. Augustine's Episcopal Church in downtown Oakland. He lives in Berkeley with his wife, Sally.
